Will I Ever Get Laid Again

©Jeff Wall

Darling will I ever get laid again?
We started out as lovers, now it seems that we're just friends

I'm old and I'm lumpy, but I'm horny and I'm grumpy
Tell me Darling,will I ever get laid again?

I met you when I was just 27.
I thought you were an angel, sent down here from Heaven

But How was I to tell, You were gonna put me through Hell
Tell me Darling,will I ever get laid again?

We started dating when you were just 23
The love we made was wild beyond belief
But those freaky games we played, well hell, that's all gone away
Tell me Darling,will I ever get laid again?

Sometimes I wish I'd just been born gay
Just think of all the money, that I might have saved
But loving either sex I guess, is still a pain in my ass
Tell me Darling,will I ever get laid again?

Tell me Darling,will I ever get laid again?
